A thin skin of ice formed Monday night, the first of the season.

Messrs. Day & Haif have a handsome new delivery wagon.

A number of petty thieves are at work near Alton, in Anderson county.

"Much atmospheric disturbance" is predicted for to-day by a New York weather prophet.

Mr. H. R. Williams has erected a portico at the side entrance of his grocery, in South Frankfort.

Dr. H. A. M. Henderson's lecture on California at Major Opera House was rather slimly attended.

The nobbiest lot of New Year cards ever brought to this city are now in this office. Call and examine them.

We have just received a stock of beautful New Year calling cards. Drop in and leave your order for a package.

Exhaustive diseases that lead to insanity, consumption, and a premature grave, are quickly cured by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

Mr. Hiram Berry, of this city, was married Tuesday to Miss Clint Cunningham, of Grant county, at the residence of the bride, near Williamstown.

The wires of the telephone exchange have been run into the residence of Mr. Russell Rodman and the drug store of Mr. Jos. LeCompte this week.

Mr. W. P. Hudson, sr., has been appointed a United States Storekeeper and assigned to night duty at Messrs. Labrot & Graham's distillery, in Woodford county.

When there are fifty subscribers to the telephone the exchange will be kept open all the time, night and day. There are now forty-four subscribers and only six are wanting.

Ripe cherries of the second crop have been grown on the farm of Mr. William Jones, in this county, and in the orchards of several gentlemen living near Alton, Anderson county.

A $19,000 Fire.

Frankfort has been visited by another big fire, and this time two large manufacturing establishmens were swept away. About two o'clock yesterday morning the saw-mill of Mr. Jas. M. Wakefield was discovered to be on fire, and in a very few minutes the whole building was wrapped in flames. The alarm was speedily given and the firemen were promptly on hand, but the wind was blowing a perfect gale from the South, and the water thrown had little or no effect in checking the flames. The engine was first placed at the cistern on the corner of Broadway and Washington streets, which it pumped out in about ten minutes and then had to be removed to the river. The delay occasioned by the removal of course gave the fire a chance to gain headway and the firemen were never able to bring it under control, although they worked faithfully and hard as they always do, until after daylight.

The fire, driven by the wind, speedily consumed the saw-mill of Mr. Wakefield and the planing mill of Messrs. Wakefield & Choat adjoining, and soon reached over and lapped up the saw and planing mills of Messrs. Rodman & Sneed, a hundred feet away. The roar of the fire was terrific and the heat was so intense that it was with great difficulty that the firemen could get near enough to throw water upon it at all.

The whole of that end of town would have been destroyed but fortunately most of the sparks were blown into the river. In Belle Point there was a continual shower of sparks falling, and the people over there had to be continually on the alert to prevent their houses from taking fire. The wind blowing in the direction it did enabled the firemen and mill hands to save most of the lumber on the yards, and only about 230,000 feet were destroyed, Mr. Wakefield losing about 30,000, most of which was in the planing mill dressed, and Messrs. Rodman & Sneed losing about 200,000 in the planing mill and in the stack.

Messrs. Rodman & Sneed lost about $9,000 dollars, with insurance amounting to $4,000 on the mill and $4,000 on the lumber. Mr. Wakefield's loss is about $10,000, with $4,600 on the mill and $5,000 on the lumber.

By this fire sixty hands are thrown out of employment, but we are glad to say the mills will both be rebuilt in a short time.

AN ACCIDENT.

About six o'clock yesterday morning, while Col. Thos. Rodman was assisting the firemen to put out a stack of lumber near the planing mill of Messrs. Rodman & Sneed, one of the walls of that building fell and caught him under it, cutting his head very badly and breaking one of his ribs. It was feared for a time that he was fatally injured internally, but we are glad to be able to state that he is doing very well, and it is hoped he will be all right in a short time.

Mr. Dan. Swigert, formerly of this city, has purchased of Mr. M. H. Sanford, the Elkhorn Stock Farm, near Lexington, together with his stud of horses, for which he paid one hundred and eighty thousand dollars cash.

By reference to the time table at the head of the first column of the third page, it will be seen that considerable change has been made in the time of arrival and departure of the trains on the L. C. & L. Railroad. The down train from Lexington arrives here in the morning a quarter of an hour earlier and the up train from Louisville nearly an hour later. The down train in the afternoon does not reach here until the old time of a quarter after three, and the up train does not arrive until ten minutes after six. The accommodation train still leaves at six o'clock in the morning, but returning arrives here at twenty minutes after eight at night. The accommodation and afternoon trains down connect with the Cincinnati train at LaGrange.

The rumor having reached Frankfort that our people were greatly stirred up, there was great danger of something serious happening. Col. Davy put on his war coat, shouldered his fuzee and marched into town Monday morning. He offered his services to the Sheriff to sit down on any of the unruly folks about town, but was told that heavy artillery could not be used to advantage, so he retreated to a store on St. Clair street and laid aside his "weepin." We had the pleasure of examining it a short time after, and found it to be of the single-barrel shot-gun persuasion, thirty-two inches in length, stock and all, the barrel being just eighteen inches, and the bore one half inch. We think it weighed about two pounds, and as long as he totes such an engine of war his nickname is safe from the highwayman.

The Roundabout's announcement that John E. Owens would appear in this city during the coming week is somewhat premature, and Manager Dryden did not know of it until he saw the paper. Mr. Owens will be in the city some months later when he visits Louisville.—Dispatch.

The youth who engineers the Twilight Bugle should inform himself before he makes such rash statements. Manager Dryden did know that Mr. Owens was coming here, and it was upon his authority that the statement was made in this paper. A similar announcement was made in the Yeoman, and it was based upon a postal card from the manager of the Lexington Opera House, who proposed to play Mr. Owens in this city, requesting that a notice be inserted. If the young man of the Evening Dew Drop will endeavor to be as correct in all his statements as the Roundabout is he may yet grow up to be a journalist.

There are nine distilleries in this county and whose places of business are in this city. It requires twenty United States Storekeepers and six Gaugers to run these houses. Of this number Franklin county furnishes but seven Storekeepers and three Gaugers.

The highway robbery last week and the escape of the perpetrators, of it, has been the principal topic of conversation on the street corners. It is now well settled that Stephen L. Secaree, who was tried for the murder of Phil. Lumox, in this county several years ago, acquitted, and afterwards sent to the penitentiary for forging the name of Mr. Jos. Robinson to an order for clothing, and a man known as Jas. Terry, but who has several aliases, and is also a former resident within the walls of Castle Stone, were the parties who did the robbing and afterwards shot Messrs. Lee and Stephens. Nothing has been learned as to what became of Terry after the shooting, but it has been since learned that Secaree, directly after the difficulty with the officers, went to the residence of a relative in the eastern part of South Frankfort, and told that he had been shot twice in a ~~fuss~~ over a game of cards on Market street, and that he feared his partner had been killed. He had his pistol in his hand and swore that he would not be taken alive by the police if they came after him. He was told he could not stay there, and left in a few minutes, going to the house of a farmer on Pea Ridge, several miles from the city, where he remained until Saturday afternoon. Mr. Walker Stephens heard of his whereabouts and started out to arrest him. He got on his track and finally came upon him, lying in a fence corner a short distance from Benson Station. Mr. Stephens leveled his shot gun upon him, ordering him to throw up his hands, but instead of doing that Secaree fired a shot at Mr. Stephens, who attempted to return the fire but the gun would not go off. Secaree fired several times until Mr. Stephens threw away his gun and drew his pistol, when Secaree ran into the bushes, followed by a pistol ball, and disappeared.

A party was organized Saturday night who scoured the country that night and Sunday but failed to find him. On Monday a reward, of one hundred dollars each for the two men, was offered by the Mayor and County Judge, and men started out all over the country to look for them. Tuesday a party from this city got on Secaree's trail in Henry county, followed it up for some distance, finally got sight of him, and fired one shot at him, but he eluded them and escaped into the bushes. They returned to this city bringing with them his shirt, with bullet holes in it and stains of blood upon it, which they found at a house in Eminence where he had left it.

Where will you take Thanksgiving dinner?

Turkeys are beginning to feel weak in the knees.

The Capitol Cigar is the best five cent cigar in Frankfort.

Mr. L. Tobin began killing hogs the first of the week.

No cigar in town can beat the Capitol; she is a darling.

Dried apples, pears, peaches and prunes at Banta's.

Since the heavy frosts it is hoped the fever will disappear.

Great improvements in some of the sidewalks of the city are being made.

Raisins, citrons, currants and dates at Banta's.

Mr. Darsie preaches to young people to-morrow night on the "Reasonableness of Religion." All are invited.

There will be union Thanksgiving services at the Baptist Church in this city next Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock. Sermon by Elder George Darsie. Let everybody attend.

Mr. Richard Parker, engineer at the Cotton Mills, got the forefinger of his left hand caught in the furnace door yesterday morning and had it so badly mashed that he is fearful he will lose the first joint.

For a man that is shot in the shoulder, and with a leg greatly swollen by another wound, Secaree can get around about as lively as any man we ever heard of. Truly in this case "Stephen is so deceiving."

Personal.

Mr. F. P. Lewis, the enterprising merchant of Bella Point, and Miss Emma Ziegler, daughter of Mr. John L. Ziegler, were married at the Presbyterian Church in this city, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. John W. Pugh officiating. Messrs. Howe Watson, Jos. B. Lewis, Dudley Watson, and E. T. Quin were the ushers of the occasion, and a large company of the friends of the contracting parties were in attendance to witness the ceremony.

For some time the citizens of Alton, Anderson county, and the farmers living near there, have been losing hogs, grain, and in some instances money, and not long since the bar-room of Mr. Jas. Catlett was robbed. Mr. C. became convinced that a colored man in his employ knew something about the robbery, and imparting his suspicions to a neighbor, they concluded to make the man tell who did it. They took him to the woods and threatened to kill him if he did not tell, when he revealed everything. He told them that two white men were at the head of the gang; that they were going to rob a certain farmer's barn that night, and that he was to get the key of the smoke-house of Mr. J. W. McClure, for whom his wife was cooking, the next night, and it was to be emptied of its contents. He was admonished to keep his fellow-thieves in ignorance of having told on them on pain of receiving a dose of lead, and to accompany them on their expeditions. Arrangements were made to take the whole party that night, and a company of citizens were stationed around the barn to be robbed. The thieves came but finding the doors securely locked, concluded not to break them open and went away, but not before they were all seen and recognized. It was a week or more before they attempted another robbery, and it was feared that the colored man had told his confederates. Thursday it was learned that the barn of Mr. John McClure was to be robbed that night and guards were stationed. The rascals were on time and found the coast clear, the doors having been left unlocked for their convenience, and as soon as they had loaded themselves down with sacks of grain they were taken in charge. The two white men, Dick Watts and Wm. Richards, and the colored man, John Mukes, were the parties captured, and they will be likely to get a term in the penitentiary. Richards is well known as a marketer in this city. Mukes may get off by turning States evidence.

WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT.

Mr. Geo. Eichhorn, of the firm of Burns & Eichhorn, of this city, died at his home on upper Main street Tuesday morning at three o'clock. He had been confined to bed but a few days and the immediate cause of his death was hemorrhage from the lungs.

Capt. Cuyler stated to the editor of the Dispatch that the washing out of the abutment at Lock No. 1 was the fault of local management. Who put the local manager in charge? Was it not his duty to see that the local manager had the work done right?

A very successful meeting has just closed at the Christian Church near Peak's Mill. There were forty-five additions, thirty-six of whom were converts. The meeting was begun by Elder Polk South, continued by Elder Hiram Ford, and ended by Elder George Darsie on Thursday night.

The Insurance Companies having at last made a settlement with Mr. R. C. Church, he commenced clearing away the ruins of his stable, on Ann street, the first of the week, and is now going ahead with the work of rebuilding. It is one of the oldest and best stands in the city for the livery business.

Mr. Chas. B. Wayman, Erie, Pa., writes: "My physicians had given me up to die. They told me my lungs and liver were all decayed and gone. I was very weak, pale, and emaciated. By chance I saw Brown's Iron Bitters advertised. I immediately realized that without Iron in the Blood, life could not exist. With trembling anxiety I sent a servant, who procured for me a bottle. I must have taken it with great faith, for almost immediately I felt its beneficial effect. Soon all dyspeptic symptoms disappeared, my lungs grew strong, pains in the region of the heart vanished, my urine became free of sediment, and in a word I have regained perfect health. Now I feel able to thrash the doctor who attended me, and really believe I ought to do it."

Resolutions of Respect.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 15, 1881.

In the wise dispensation of Providence the Catholic Knights of Branch No. 83, of Frankfort, Ky., are called upon to mourn the death of our well beloved brother, George Eichhorn, whose death will cause a breach in the family circle, in our meeting hall, and as a good counselor in the working of our Branch. Therefore be it

Resolved, 1. That we bow in submission to our Heavenly Father's will, and in sorrow lament the death of one whose sterling worth and religious character have gained for him the esteem of all the members of this Branch, as well as of all who knew him.

2. That, though not taken unexpectedly from his labor of usefulness on earth to a home in Heaven, his exemplary life will remain as a guide to the members of our Branch in Frankfort; and, as the originator of this Branch, we deeply feel his loss in the teachings of his wise counsels.

3. That we as members of Branch No. 83 Catholic Knights of America in Frankfort, tender the bereaved family of our brother our heart-felt sympathy, in this, their hour of sorrow, and pray that the God of the widow and orphan will ever comfort, protect and guard them.

4. That as a token of respect to his memory, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

5. That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our Branch, and a copy be sent to the bereaved wife, under the seal of this Branch, and published in the city papers, and Central Catholic Advocate.

P. HORGAN, President.

GEO. BURKHOLDER, Secretary.

A young man was in town this week teaching the boys how to run a short wire up their noses and pull it out at the back of their heads. He explained the trick and showed them how to do it for from fifty cents to a dollar.

Mr. J. C. Bridges will shortly lead to the altar one of Sweet Owen's fairest daughters.

The mill of Messrs. Parker Brothers is being repainted, which will add greatly to its appearance.

Mr. John T. Buckley, of your city, has just put a metal roof upon Mr. Geo. W. Parker's new house.

Mr. Peter Wiley and Miss Nannie True and Mr. Robt. Wiley and Miss Kirby were married on Wednesday.

The contest between agents for the purchase of the tobacco in this locality is becoming quite spirited.

Messrs. Bridges Brothers have 50,000 pounds of tobacco for which they have been offered twenty dollars per hundred and refused it.

Rumor has it that Mr. Geo. W. Parker will shortly draw on Peak's Mill for one of its most valuable prizes to ornament his new residence.

Mr. Willis Wiley, wife, and daughter, Miss Annie, will visit relatives in Bloomington, Indiana, on the 23d instant, and will remain until after Christmas.

Elders J. K. P. South and Hiram Ford are holding protracted meeting at Pleasant Hill Church, near Peak's Mill, and have had forty-three additions so far.

In my last I stated that Mr. Jas. Merner had purchased the Hockersmith place; he had done so but the other parties flew the track and he is still looking for a place.

Rev. J. A. Coppage sold his homestead of twenty acres, with good improvements, to Mr. John Anderson, of Sand Ripple, the 5th of this month, for four hundred dollars. Mr. Anderson sold it the same day to Mr. Harrod, of same locality, for five hundred dollars.

Mr. Homer Tagget has sold forty acres of his farm, including his water mill and fixtures, to Mr. G. W. Lawrence, of Monterey, for forty dollars per acre. The remnant he sold to Mr. Francis Tagget for sixteen and two-third dollars per acre.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom. It restores gray hair to its original color. It makes the scalp white and clean. It cures dandruff and humors, and falling-out of the hair. It furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a hair dressing. It is the most economical preparation ever offered to the public, as its effects remain a long time, making only an occasional application necessary. It is recommended and used by eminent medical men, and officially endorsed by the State Assayer of Massachusetts. The popularity of Hall's Hair Renewer has increased with the test of many years, both in this country and in foreign lands, and it is now known and used in all the civilized countries of the world.
